MEET HELEN MANSFIELD

Helen has been a part of our local community for the past 10 years, and before that she spent many holidays in the area for over 30 years. She is currently on the board of Greater Port Macquarie Tourism Association.

Helen, tell us a little about yourself and your current and past endeavours.

Well, it's been a wide and varied career journey and certainly not linear! I started my professional life as a primary school teacher and after 12 years of teaching transitioned to ministry as a Pastor. In 2020 I took a sabbatical year, to take a mid-life break and ponder my future, but it just so happened that Covid made my mind up for me! My husband and I had a little plot of land in the Camden Haven we used more as a family retreat but had future plans to open to the public. Those future plans were fast-tracked to the present and so we birthed Mansfield Estate eco-tourism resort. Having built a successful business, we handed over to our caretakers this year, and I was given the opportunity to work with Business NSW as their Regional Coordinator.

Can you please share how long and why you are on the board of Greater Port Macquarie Tourism Association.

I've been on the GPMTA board for just over two years now. I was invited to join by our incredible leader and Chair Janette Hyde. I wasn't sure how much I could offer at first, as I hadn't served on a board before. However, working with such a dynamic group of people I learned, it was not as onerous as I thought it would be. Our mandate is to advocate for and support our members and this resonated with my ministry background to serve and support people.

What do you love the most about tourism in our region?

Oh, my goodness, where do I start?! Obviously, there is the natural environment; beaches, mountains, forests, and lakes. Then there's also so much to do like, zoos, adventure parks, escape rooms, river cruises, helicopter rides, movies, live music, theatre and the arts, sports, cultural walks, and festivals of all sorts. For the discerning culinary customers we have, wineries, award-winning restaurants, bars and cafes! What I love is that this region has it all and caters to everyone. There's so much to see, do, and experience in Port, driven and represented by passionate and enthusiastic tour operators!

What an exciting honour to be able to represent all of these wonderful aspects of tourism through the Great Port Macquarie Tourism Association board.

MEET ELSA BARBOSA

We recently caught up with Elsa, board member of the Greater Port Macquarie Tourism Association.

Elsa, share a little about yourself and your past and current endeavours?

I moved to Port Macquarie nearly 5 years ago to be with my partner David Lazarus who used to live here 20 years prior and came back to restart the Port Venture cruise operations newly named Port Adventure Cruises.

I have worked in hospitality most of my life, including a stint as a Travel Agent, I was also a Dental Therapist at one point.

When we moved to Port Macquarie, I felt an instant connection and because my partner David was well known from his previous time due to his entertainment business, it was easy for me to settle in from the first day I arrived.

Currently we are in the process of re-establishing our charter boat business after the couple of rough years that we have had to deal with just as so many other businesses have had to, with refreshed business plans, restructuring and operations.

Can you please share how you came to be on the board of Greater Port Macquarie Tourism Association.

Five years ago, I met Janette Hyde, who David has always had a great relationship with both business and personally.

Janette, as President of the GPMTA, and with her passion for the Tourism industry and the Greater Port Macquarie area encouraged our business to join the association.

The meetings we attend, are full of passionate business people who don't only want their businesses to prosper, they are also interested in helping other businesses and the region. In October 2022, a position became available on the board, and I had no hesitation in nominating and thankfully was accepted.

What do you love the most about tourism in our region?

I know it is a cliché, but it's "The Vibe". Port Macquarie in my opinion, has got everything that is required for both tourists and locals to want to live and visit here. Most of the locals that now live here, were probably tourists at one stage and now that this town has recovered from a few natural disasters, it is important that everyone embraces this region and supports the tourism efforts that the GPMTA has promoted since its start over 30 years ago.

It is a fact of life that Port Macquarie is a tourist town and therefore needs tourists for the town and businesses to prosper further.

More tourists, means more jobs and more opportunities for the locals.
