MEET CASSIE CLARK

From a very early age Cassie was involved with Hospitality. Her family and siblings all playing varied roles in the industry.

Cassie and her husband Marten operate Seasalt Café Restaurant which is located at the Marina Port Macquarie. She is true lover of all things hospitality.

This really manifests itself in the fantastic Customer Service she offers her customers. This flows on to her staff, they are a great example of Customer Service Excellence.

They moved to this beautiful location to semi retire !!

Well that didn't happen because Seasalt at the Marina was born, and over 8 years later they have enjoyed meeting ,serving ,educating ,supporting, sponsoring, cooking and caring for our staff customers and community alike.

Seasalt is more than just a Café. Seasalt Café is available for private functions so please check out what Seasalt can offer for your special occasion.

Cassie is a Community player and is currently on two Boards, one being Bravehearts Mid North Coast which fundraises for child protection education for all children in the primary school system K-3.

The other is the Greater Port Macquarie Tourism Association. She is passionate about Tourism in our Region and is very generous with her time for this activity.

Adopt A Billabong Koala Now!

Our Koala Breeding Centre is critical in helping increase Australia's captive koala population and raising awareness of the conservation for this special marsupial.

What do I get when I adopt?

In appreciation for your generosity, you will receive an eAdoption pack, keeping the environment front of mind and minimising the impact on forests and trees, which make both homes and food sources for koalas.

Included in your eAdoption Pack:

- 1) Certificate of Adoption
- 2) Photo & Bio of your chosen koala
- 3) A paw print of your chosen koala
- 4) Subscription to our Breeding Centre Biannual Update (Summer & Winter Editions)
