WHAT DELICIOUS FUN!

SCONES: warm, with that irresistible just-baked aroma straight from the oven, lavished with pure natural whipped cream and our own glorious strawberry jam – no wonder they’ve been declared “world’s best”!

No lesser an authority than a UK visitor from west country Devon, home of the traditional Devonshire Tea, described Ricardoes Farm’s scones as “light as a cloud” and “melt in your mouth”. And it seems taste-testing by countless diners in our Café Red have proven it so.

You’re welcome to put your own personal spin on this refreshing favourite: swap tea for barista coffee from local-roasted beans; switch strawberry jam for a dollop of our own blueberry conserve; substitute a strawberry smoothie for the kids, who love our scones too.

“Family fun” is the feeling at Ricardoes, 10 minutes north of Port’s CBD, all on excellent sealed roads. (We’ve a generous sealed carpark too). We’re a family-owned and operated farm with loads of grassy open space and fresh country air and we welcome and cater to visitors of all ages from tiny tots to seniors, with something for everyone. Entry is entirely free of charge and we’re open 7 days a week, 364 days a year.

Ricardoes Tomatoes & Strawberries Farm is Port’s longtime favourite all year round, visitors lured by the sweet mouth-watering fragrance of our ripe red berries. Our popular pick-your-own strawberry experience is perfect for all ages: seniors can reach out and select the fruit at arm’s length – no bending! – while tiny tots move along the easily accessible bottom of vertical latticed rows, filling their own mini-buckets with beautiful berries too. Pay only for what you pick.

Marvel at our Jack and the Beanstalk towering forests of row upon row of tomato vines, many times named Best at Sydney Royal Easter Show. At 11am every weekday there’s a fascinating free farm tour for visitors to roam with us and discover the secrets of producing finest quality fruit and veges. No booking’s required: just turn up!

Café Red’s not only known for our scones. Brekkie, brunch and morning tea from 9am seven days is followed by lunch and afternoon tea to 3pm, in an airy atmosphere and air-conditioned comfort. Again, no booking needed. Wholesome farm produce is the mainstay of our wide range of delicious dishes all made fresh on the spot, at sensible prices. There are plenty of snacks on offer too: cakes, novelty sweets, drinks and takeaways. Our fridges and larders offer a big choice of goods for restocking your own home, or mobile home.

Our massive treasure trove of truly sensational Fine Foods Awarded sweet and savoury preserves is made locally from all our own fruit. Take home some supplies ... purchase a souvenir of your visit ... select from the huge range to make a special gift for friends or family for Christmas and all occasions – just tie a ribbon around the jar!
