KINGS OF COLOUR

My name is Byron Christensen and welcome to Kings of Colour.

Kings of Colour is a street art class for people of all ages and abilities! I started Kings of Colour for a multitude of reasons, but before we get into that I'd like to share my background.

I'm 21 years old and I work for the NDIS doing disability support work. The reason I got into this line of work is I have a step sister with severe autism, growing up with her has made understand a lot more and see how disabilities affect people differently. Being around her for so many years made me want to get into this line of work and make a difference.

I started doing street art on September 24th, 2016. This was the day my whole world got flipped upside down as it was the day my dad went to jail. I remember feeling so lost watching my life as I knew it fall apart piece by piece and change all in front of my eyes and not being able to do anything about it. It changed rapidly and I didn't have any way of escaping what was going on around me other than graffiti. I remember I would sit and draw every night until the sun came up, it would place me in my own world where I was in complete control and everything around me didn't matter. It was the ultimate escape. Over the years I had several traumatic and rough events take place in my life that once again I had zero control over, ultimately using my art to express all my mixed emotions as it felt like the only way to cope and keep going. I do honestly believe if it wasn't for street art/ graffiti I would be around or anywhere near where I'm at in life if I didn't have it. It taught me a lot of things and I feel it protected me like a Shield when things got too much to handle.

To me I honestly feel like I owe everything to the art. It took me on a path in life I could never have even imagined. From paid jobs to meeting some of my closest mates for life, travelling to places to paint, learning the culture and getting opportunities I would not have been able to.

Although it helped me tremendously, my teenage years I went into a dark path. Drugs, crime, being around older criminals etc. when I was 18 all of that come crashing down when I was caught doing illegal graffiti and my phone was seized.

It lead to multiple serious charges from stuff inside the phone and I was looking at serious jail time. You'd think something as scary as that would make me stop but sadly it didn't. I kept going further down the path for about another year or two narrowly getting out of the jail sentence by the skins of my teeth. I still to this day can't explain what happened but one day I woke up and i suddenly felt dirty, disgusting and sick about all the choices I made and wanted to throw that whole life style away and make a positive difference. Now I've only recently found out how to do so which is KINGS OF COLOUR. I want to reach all sorts of people and show them the culture of street art that I have learned and hopefully guide people on the right path in the process while making some more life long friends.

By doing these classes it gives me a chance to be 100% myself. The way I see it outside street art byron Christensen is just a facade. Painting and art is who I really am because every time I paint I'm expressing my emotions, my history, my personality, my story and every thing about me and putting it on a wall. I hope to be able to pass on the same feelings to other people and let them express stuff they dont know how to in other ways.

I now have the opportunity to do so at PLANET SKATE Port Macquarie. And a massive Thankyou to Amaya and Adam from Planet Skate for giving me the opportunity to teach at their venue and all the amazing help they've given me on the way through everything I really couldn't have done it without them.

So come on down and throw some colour around guys and have a skate. I look forward to seeing everyone there!

Bonny Arts

Ceramic Art exhibition

7th March - until sold-out!

Tim Walker – Artist and

The ceramics are all hand built, one-of-a-kind pieces, with inspiration from rainbow beach,

Bonny Hills on the Mid North Coast.

All ceramics use natural stoneware clay and non-chemical, sustainability friendly glazes.

The ceramic plates and bowls are a mix of pottery and leather and a combination of clays, to create a variety of texture and color.

Each telling a story or taking you to a place of calm, with the Australian Native series.

All Art is for sale or call Tim 0457766965

Exhibition @

Peakface Colab Cafe
